

The Jewish Genealogical Society of Illinois

proudly presents a

FREE MINI-CONFERENCE FOR YOUTH

In 6th through 12th grades

Sunday, June 9, 2013

From 1:25 to 3:40 p.m.

at

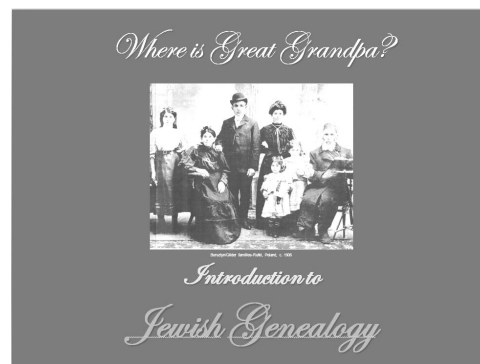

Temple Beth Israel

3601 W. Dempster St.

Skokie, IL 60076

Featured speaker

Robin B. Seidenberg, executive vice president and co-president designate of the Jewish Genealogical society will raise the intriguing question “Where is Great-Grandpa” in her youth-oriented presentation from 1:25 to 2:25 p.m. She will discuss myths like “All the records were lost during the wars in Europe” and will show how to begin unearthing fascinating information about participants’ forebears. She will start with Noah’s family tree and explain how family history researchers need to think like detectives.

STEPPING STONES TO RESEARCHING
YOUR FAMILY'S JEWISH ROOTS
With Harriet Rudnit,
J.G.S.I. Past President, as your guide

Featured speaker

Harriet Rudnit is a former president of JGSI and a semi-retired middle school and adult educator. She will explain in “Stepping Stones to Researching Your Family’s Jewish Roots” from 2:40 to 3:40 p.m. how important documents and websites can help youths research the who, what, when, where and how of their family’s ancestry. She will provide a handout to attendees to help them pursue their genealogical quest to learn more about their known and unknown relatives.