Marian Poles Aid Society
Minutes of 6/15/1975
6506 N. California

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 P.M. Mr. David Poesman chaired
The meeting in Mr. Irving Freeman’s absence.
Members were given a warm Father’s Day welcome.

Appreciation was expressed to Misses Anna Keue for hosting
The meeting in honor of their new great-grand daughter Leora, born in February.

Mr. Poesman announced that President Irving Freeman was ill but making progress. All present hoped for speedy recovery.

Mazel Tov was extended to Mr. & Mrs.
Meyer Edelson on their 55th wedding anniversary.
Mazel tov was extended to Mrs. Helen ARONSON on her grandson's receiving his Ph.D. The same sentiment was expressed to Mrs. Lena Lewis whose twin granddaughters graduated this month.

Minutes of the May 1975 meeting were read, corrected, and approved.

Mrs. Lena Lewis gave the financial report from last month's meeting.
The MAS balance, as of that meeting, was $7,200.00, including $188 in donations and $300 due received at our store. The last meeting,

Mr. Passman reported the need of a longstanding MAS family requiring considerable financial help because of illness. The amount of help to be given was the question for discussion. The authority for decision was given to Mrs. Lena Lewis and Mr. David Passman, who decided on a $50 donation to the family.

Mrs. Sonia Kirs praised Mr. Passman's efforts with the last bulletin.

Editor Passman was admonished about his strenuous single-handed effort and encouraged to seek secretarial help with future bulletins. He was also admonished for neglecting to name the Natkess of the Farrei Day Meeting.

Mr. Mayer Edson, the MAS poet-laureate was introduced to read a selection.

Mr. Edson's topic was "Farrei Day" for which he read a delightful Yiddish essay. Poem The reading was well received & Mr. Edson promised future readings.

The next meeting will be the annual memorial meeting, to be held on August 24th.

Though earlier than usual, because of the High Holidays, the memorial meeting will still occur in Elul—The Traditional month.
for the meeting.

The meeting following will be held in October.

David Passman called on members to share good news with the MAS and adjourned the meeting at 2:25 p.m.

Respectfully submitted

Barbara Passman
acting assistant secretary.
Dear Janice:

Am mailing you the minutes, list of Donations + Income + Expense for June & July.

The next meeting will take place Thursday, August 24, 1975 at 1:00 P.M. at Radnor Center. There won't be a meeting in September on account of the Holidays. Hope, you will be able to attend.

Regards & best wishes to you & your dear family,

Sincerely,

Louis.
