Dear Mrs. Kurs:—

It is many years, since our yom-taivim were observed, in our old Mariampolex. It is hard to remember—nor forget, that the old Shtetlach are gone and forgotten. Enclosed please find my check for membership dues as well as a slight donation for the beloved organization of ours. May our dear God bless for the hard work and efforts exerted by you all.

Fraternally yours,

Irving and Pearl Yellin.

P.S. Please excuse me for being so late in sending you my check. I was held back by a coronary that sent me to the hospital for a stay of seven days, then again for another 14 days. However, I am recovering nicely.

I am writing in my previous letters I mentioned information about the family restriction to 1949 and 1951

obtained from the
Two Institute in New York.

I imagine you already have these items but if you don't, and would like copies, please let me know. Conversely, if you have any further material I should very much like to hear from you.

As well as obtaining information about the town, I have also tried to obtain copy birth certificates and census returns. I have written to a couple of libraries in Lithuania for advice, and also to the District Archives in Russia, but although I have received replies to my letters, I have not received the documents I wanted. I have also written to the Central Archives in Warsaw - although they sent me census returns of Cieciu (see my family's family) they could not help me with Machnowat.

Dear Mr. Sokol

Very many thanks indeed for sending me a copy of your map of Warsaw. As I have said in my previous letters I have found it very difficult to obtain information about the town and therefore any new information is welcome.

Apart from your map, my information is restricted to:

a) Warsaw and vicinity yearbooks for 1949 and 1951
b) Articles in Hebrew (with English translation) from "Jewish Life" and "Jewish Institute" in New York.

I imagine you already have these items but if you don't and would like copies, please let me know. Conversely, if you have any further material I should very much like to hear from you.

As well as obtaining information about the town I have also tried to obtain copies with certificates and census returns. I have written to a couple of libraries in Lithuania for advice and also to the Dziukier Archives in Warsaw, but although I have received replies to my letters I have not received the documents I wanted. I have also written to the Central Archives in Warsaw - although they sent me census returns of Warsaw (ie my family's family) they could not help me with Warsaw.

Yours...

P.S.
I don’t know if you’ve had any success of expensive in obtaining birth certificates or census returns but if you have I should like to hear of it.

In conclusion may I thank you again for your map - please let me know if I owe you anything.

Kind regards

Dear Ms Sorkin,

Mariamopol, Lithuania

Some months ago I read of you in the bulletin of the Mariamopolis Society and I wrote to you for a copy of a map and any other information you could provide. My cousin, Sonia Kurs, wrote to me saying you had received my letter, but unfortunately I have not received a reply so I am writing to give you a friendly reminder.

I have had some success in researching my father's family (from Krakow) but virtually none on my mother's side (from Mariamopol). I am trying to obtain copies of death certificates, census returns, etc. from Mariamopol and would welcome any suggestions you have.

I shall of course pay for your time and the cost of your map - see no please write soon.

Yours sincerely,

Geoffrey M Weisgard

P.S.

[Handwritten note: My grandfather's mother was born in Mariamopol. This makes me descend in the Radoski family.]
Dear Mr. Sorkin

Jewish History

I have recently seen your name in the Maricampol Aid Society Bulletin and I hope you will be able to help me in one of my hobbies.

For some years I have been interested in my family history and as one of my grandfathers came from Maricampol I joined the M.A.S. As you appreciate, published information of the town is rather limited (and is almost entirely in languages I do not understand). Any information you could give me therefore would be very welcome — and I would of course pay your costs.

For example I was interested to see you have a map of the old town and I should greatly appreciate a copy.

On the level of my own family (as opposed to the town generally) I have found it almost impossible to find new information and I should be grateful if you could direct me to any likely sources; e.g. so far as you know have any census returns or Guild records survived?

My grandfather’s name incidently was ROTHMELER (\(=\) ROTHMELER?) and my grandfather’s mother was an AKTURDOS (This makes me related to the Kuss family)

My hobby covers my Rabin family (from Cracow) as well as the Marianpol branch, and I should like to take this opportunity to ask if you have any information on the Jewish community in Cracow. (I already have quite a lot but would always like more).

I do very much hope you can help me - and can at least let me have a copy of the Marianpol map - and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Geoffrey Riegler
THE OLD SYNAGOGUE
Cor. Ashland and Polk St.
Rabbi Saul Silber

This particularly important chapter in the history of Anshe Sholom Congregation had its beginning in 1910, not with words and wishes, but with living deeds for Anshe Sholom and for Chicago in general. With the arrival of Rabbi Silber was added a force which helped to create an epochal period in local social and national activities.

Rabbi Silber belongs to the category of spiritual leaders who practice what they preach. He is an able and profound popular speaker, and his words penetrate the hearts of his hearers. He is concrete and constructive. He appeals for deeds for the common good and he is himself among the doers. That is the secret of his great influence in all important undertakings, where he serves not only as advisor but also as a practical worker.

Education. He has always called and appealed for organized Jewish education. He worked to improve existing Hebrew schools and aided in establishing new ones on sound foundations. He never despaired even when former Hebrew school workers opposed improvements and he was compelled to wage a vigorous struggle on behalf of traditional Jewish education. The edifice of Anshe Sholom Congregation at Douglas Boulevard and Homan Avenue, was a model Hebrew school and Jewish centre.

Zionism. He became here the Zionist tribune. He awakened the community conscience. Zionism grew here into a popular movement and the synagogues were his supporting pillars. Convinced that the Holy Land had to be built up in the spirit of the Torah, he became a leading force in the American Mizrachi movement. In 1920, he attended the Inter-allied Conference, convened in London by Dr. Chaim Weitzman. In 1929, he was a Mizrachi delegate to the Zionist Congress and was elected to the Jewish Agency.
Charities. At the end of 1912, he joined the movement to organize the Federated Charities (orthodox), becoming one of the first directors.

When this body turned for aid to the former Associated Charities (reform) and as a result a committee from both organizations was formed to assist the Federated Charities, he was chosen director of the committee.

When J. Rosenwald, in 1921, selected a committee to amalgamate both above-mentioned organizations, Rabbi Silber was made a member of this committee, where he demanded equal status for the Hebrew schools and Sabbath observance by the Charities office.

Rabbi Silber has been a member of Mount Sinai Hospital since 1913, when the hospital still bore the name of "Maimonides". He holds similar office in the Marx Nathan Orphan Home. As Vice-President of the New York Central Relief and member of the Chicago committee, he visits many cities and assists in organizing fund campaigns everywhere.

The Song of Songs of all his tireless activity during the past twenty-odd years has been the Hebrew Theological College (see the 4th volume of the Central Sepher Hazikaron), of which he has been President since 1922. He is the Pillar of Fire that illuminates the path of that high theological institution.

It must be noted with justice that Anshe Sholom Congregation, through its most active workers, has participated in great measure in all the above-detailed activities.
MORRIS, ZELIG & BESSIE

Mr. Morris was born in Russia in 1847, and came to this country in 1876, where he went into the junk business and prospered in a very short time, becoming one of the outstanding merchants in this line in Chicago. He soon became known as the “Rich Morris” and way back in the 90’s he was reputed to be a millionaire.

During his lifetime he led a simple, unostentatious life, giving much of his time and means towards the upbuilding and maintenance of the Anshe Sholom in the periods of residence at Canal, Ashland and Independence.

He was a man of his word; and was noted for his devotion to the cause of orthodox Judaism.

After a short illness at the age of 84, he passed away Tuesday, December 15, 1931.

He left a fortune of almost a million dollars, of which amount a sum of fifty-two thousand dollars was left for various charitable institutions. From that amount, thirty thousand dollars were left for the congregation Anshe Sholom, where in his memory the beautiful board of directors room was dedicated.

Mrs. Z. Morris was elected honorary president of the Ladies’ Auxiliary of the congregation. For twenty-five years, Mrs. Z. Morris belongs and contributes to various charitable institutions, as the: B. M. Z.; Eastern Stars; Council of Jewish Women; Marks Nathan Orphan Home, and Rest Haven.
Samuel Shapiro

Son of Jacob and Pessie-Gnendil, of Anixt, Lithuania. From 9 to 12 years of age, he studied Talmud with his grandfather, Mayar Schwartz, at Wilkomir, Lithuania. Later studied two years in special class (Sheeur) and at 16, began to study by himself.

In 1880, at Calvarie, he married Frade, daughter of Judah, a scholar and man of exemplary habits. Coming to America in 1882, he went into business, but in 1893, came to Chicago, where he became Shamos of the Calvarie Synagogue. He taught Talmud and was the moving spirit of that congregation (see page 30). Through his efforts, the Calvarie and Mariampoler congregations merged into the present Anshei Sholom.

In 5682 (1921-1922), illness compelled him to resign his position and since then he has occupied himself with matters of Torah. From 5685 to 5693 (1925 to 1933) he taught Talmud at the Kenmore Avenue Synagogue.

His children, Mayer, Hayman, Archie, William, Irving, Sarah (Appleton, Wis.) and Marie, hold their respected father in greatest esteem and preserve the blessed memory of their mother, who passed away the 3rd day of Ir, 5693 (1933).
William Farber

He opened a Matzoh bakery, in partnership with M. Wittenberg, and after 25 years of success he turned to real estate.

He was among the founders of the "Home for the Aged" and the "Burial Society"; an active worker for the Orphan Home; secretary in the old "Shelter House"; active in local relief work, treasurer Moe Hetim. He was president of the Moses Montefiore Talmud Torah, a director of the Beth Medrash L'Torah was vice-president and chairman "Charity Committee"; was member of "Kadimah" and a delegate to the Zionist convention.

Active for thirty-five years in Anshe Sholom, he was president for several terms.

Mrs. Farber is active in the Ladies' Auxiliary of the congregation, Beth Medrash L'Torah, "Malbush Arumim", "Lechem Loreavim", "Hadasah", etc.

Even as a very young man he participated in social and communal affairs. He was active in the Hebrew Speaking Society, charter member of Hebrew Institute (now J. P. I.—Jewish Peoples Institute); Trustee of "Agudath Bochorim Lohmday Hatalmud" (Society of Youth Students of Talmud) as long as thirty-six years ago; honorary president of Anshe Sholom Congregation; ex-president of "Agudath Hakheiloth"; ex-director of the Hebrew Theological College; original member and founder of Anshe Mizraich Synagogue, 627 Gary Pl.; member of Masonic Order and B’nai B’rith; contributor to national and local charities.

His wife, Mrs. Morris, also took part in these social activities, serving as first president of Anshe Sholom Ladies’ Auxiliary, and interested in all Jewish affairs.

Their children: Jacob Stanley, lawyer, graduate of U. of C.; member of "COIF," Sara Roselle, married to Charles Kenis, Chicago merchant, member of "S. A. M." fraternity of Illinois Irwin Wolfe, student at Northwestern University of Chicago.

Chaye Ethel, student. The children attended the Hebrew schools of Anshe Sholom Congregation and Kehilath Jacob, and are imbued with thoroughly Jewish consciousness.
Abraham Herzl Horwich
Born at Voronovo, (Wilno) Russia. Reared by great-grandfather, Yosie Dlugi, elder of the Jewish community, with whom his parents and grand-parents had boarded. Yosie kept a special tutor for his great-grandchildren. At nine years of age, Abraham Herzl was learned in the Bible. Upon the death of his mother, Rachel, Yosie and his wife went to the Holy Land and Abraham Herzl was sent by his father to Skidel, (Grodno) to become a student of the Rabbi (son-in-law of the author of "Oroch Hashulchan") and maternal grandson of the "Natzeri." At confirmation (Bar Mitzvo) he returned home, studied among the graduates and secretly pursued secular education. On this account, his father sent him to the Olkiniker theological school, where not even a newspaper was admitted. Thereupon he wrote to his uncle, B. Horwich, of Chicago, obtained $10 a month from him, and went to Kovno, where he enrolled at the new Beth Medresh, where "Rav Zviyeh" studied.

In 1899 he married Frieda, the daughter of Hirsch Wagoshin, of Yanovo, (Kovno), settled in Voronovo, traded in lumber, founded "Nes Zionoh" and their home became a centre of learning. After the Kishinev massacre in 1906, they came to Chicago with their children, Rachel and Zeviah. His restaurant soon became a salon of the intelligentsia (Dr. Shmarya Levin's banquet was held there). During the depression of 1907, he worked for his uncle Henoch, and later, quite successfully, for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. At the end of 1913, he opened the Blue Island Savings Bank with the assistance of his uncle, B. Horwich. Since 1917, he has been connected with the New York Life Insurance Company.

He is active in Anshe Sholom.
Congregation, secretary of the Board of Education of the Hebrew School and Kehillah and member of the Board of the Hebrew Theological College. Since 1924, he has done much to assemble the history of Anshe Sholom Congregation.

Mrs. Horwich is also active socially. Their children: Rachel (Mrs. Daniel Friedman); Zaviah (Mrs. Efrem Koren) and Bassia, high school teacher, were all reared according to Jewish custom.
